

UConn
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT

HERE,
WE'RE HUSKIES

WHAT MAKES US HUSKIES?

We're hungry.

We hunger for smarter solutions, for bigger ideas, and for greater understanding.

We're tenacious.

Nothing gets in our way as we seek a better way.

We're fierce.

We renounce complacency and embrace the unconventional.

And we're here – at the University of Connecticut.

Because on our own, we have the potential to become something great. But together, we have the power to become a relentless force for good.

It's on.

On, together.

UNITED BY PRIDE, UConn TOGETHER.

Our main campus in Storrs, located between New York City and Boston, serves as a hub of innovation, providing Huskies with countless opportunities.

Excellence across our four regional campuses throughout Connecticut powers an academic culture where big questions are answered. Develop your talents through tight-knit classes, strong faculty mentorships, and a supportive environment to dive into your greatest passions.

The University of Connecticut, a land grant institution, recognizes and respects Native peoples as traditional stewards of lands. View our Land Acknowledgment statement at s.uconn.edu/landstatement

Where unlimited potential meets endless opportunity.

“One day I plan to build an elementary school in Accra, the capital of Ghana in West Africa. UConn Stamford is helping me accomplish this goal by showing me the importance of leadership, and how to become an effective leader.”

“I love the inclusivity of UConn Avery Point, because you feel like you are part of a family. Avery Point is smaller, so it allows you to know almost everybody and make friends easily. It truly makes you feel right at home.”

GIOVANNI MORAN

BUSINESS

UConn Avery Point

“I have found lifelong friends, incredible professors, exciting jobs, and numerous opportunities that have shaped me into the person I am today. UConn helped me understand who I am, what I want, and who I want to be.”

FIND YOUR PATH

Many students at UConn are still determining which bold questions they want to ask and what new discoveries they want to uncover. If you are among that group, the Academic Center for Exploratory Students (ACES) will help you navigate the most efficient route to your selected field of study, typically by the end of your fourth semester. ACES also serves as the academic hub for UConn's pre-professional programs, including education and social work.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDENTS, YOUR OPPORTUNITY IS HERE

If you have completed a liberal arts transfer program, you may find that many of our general education requirements, as well as prerequisites, have been met.

Students can also take advantage of the Guaranteed Admission Program (GAP), an agreement between UConn and the Connecticut Community College system. Students who plan to earn a bachelor's degree in the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences or Agriculture, Health, and Natural Resources or the School of Business are guaranteed admission to UConn once they have earned an associate degree in an approved liberal arts transfer program.

Investing in what matters most.

Together, we'll help you afford a UConn education. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for various types of aid that will help fund your education. For details visit financialaid.uconn.edu.

Quick tips:

- UConn's Federal School Code for all campuses is 001417.
- UConn's on-time deadline is February 15.

International applicants are not eligible to complete the FAFSA, however, they qualify for select merit scholarships. For details visit admissions.uconn.edu.

COST TO ATTEND

The cost to attend varies depending on each student's personal financial situation, and your financial aid offer will be tailored to your individual need.

Storrs Main Campus Estimated Direct Cost of Attendance (includes tuition, fees, housing based on standard double, and value meal plan)

Connecticut Students	$34,362
Out-of-State Students.....	$57,030

Regional Campus Estimated Direct Cost of Attendance (includes tuition and fees)*

Connecticut Students	$17,458
Out-of-State Students.....	$40,126

In addition to direct costs, indirect costs such as books, course materials, supplies, and transportation are taken into consideration when calculating financial need for all financial aid applicants.

Additional waivable expenses may apply for items such as health insurance or other optional fees. Get the most up-to-date tuition, financial aid, and scholarship information at admissions.uconn.edu.

* Students attending UConn Stamford and living in on-campus housing will have their estimated cost of attendance increased by $13,716.

BECOME A HUSKY.

First-year applicants must apply online through either the Common Application or the Coalition Application. The UConn Application is recommended for transfer applicants.

Applications are reviewed through a holistic approach for both first-year and transfer applicants. Consideration is given to the entire application, including grade point average, class rank, SAT or ACT score (if provided; UConn is a test-optional institution), required essay, extracurricular activities, and optional letters of recommendation. This allows us to gain a full understanding and measurement of an applicant's potential to be a successful UConn Husky.
